

NEXT 500 COMPANIES

■ Mid-sized companies have dominated the Fortune Next 500, with Dynamic Technologies topping the list. The companies featuring in the Next 500 list are capable of breaking into the Fortune India 500.

■ Others in the top 10 are Gujarat Mineral Development Corp, Lucas-TVS, Gati, Adecco India and Jindal Aluminium.

■ Dynamic Technologies tops the list with an annual revenue of over Rs 1,693 crore followed by Nectar Lifescience, Oswal Wollen Mills, VRL Logistics and Hitachi Home & Life Solutions.

■ Nectar Lifescience, which is ranked second, UTI Asset Management Company (442) and Just Dial (449) are the new entrants. Indian Railway's tourism and catering arm IRCTC improved its ranking to 199 from 328 in 2015.

■ Others in the list include Narayan Hrudayalaya, Ujjivan Financial Services, Dr Lal Pathlabs and Parag Milk Foods, PVR, MOIL, Bajaj Corp, Franklin Templeton Asset Management, Motilal Oswal Financial Services, Repco Home Finance, Monsanto India.

₹5,14,788 cr

is the total revenue of the Next 500 companies, which averages to over ₹1,000 crore each.